

Happy New Year to you and yours!

A great time to continue routines and/or start new ones with intentiton...

Welcome back DCDC dancers! We hope everyone is well, rested, and rejuvenated after the holiday break. Class attendance is important now more than ever as we enter the second half of our season. Students should be on time, dressed in appropriate attire, with the correct shoes, and hair pulled back for class. Students will be learning recital choreography and are encouraged to practice their recital pieces by referencing class video recordings in BAND.
